

Girlfriend by Jonathan Richman

If I were to walk to the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston /
Well, first I'd go to the room where they keep the Cezanne(s) /
But if I had by my side a girlfriend /
Then I could look through the paintings /
I could look right through them /
Because I'd have found something that I understand /
I understand a girlfriend /
That's a girl friend /
Said G-I-R-L-F-R-E-N /
That's a girlfriend, baby /
That's something that I understand-
Alright- I walk through the Fenway, I have my heart in my hands /
I understand a girlfriend /
That's a girl friend /
Oh that's a G-I-R-L-F-R-E-N /
Well that's a girlfriend, baby /
That's something that I understand /
Four o'clock in the afternoon in the Fenway, /
I have my heart in my hands
